On your mark, get set, go!

The 35th annual Shelter Island Run 10K will be held on June 21 and will have a special participant: Meb Keflezighi, who recently became the first American in 31 years to win the Boston Marathon.

The race's start time is 5:30 p.m., showcasing views of the harbor, nature, and the community.

Starting at the Shelter Island High School, past St. Mary's Episcopal Church, across Ram Island Road and finally along an American flag-lined stretch dedicated to Lt. Joseph Theinert, who was killed in action in Afghanistan.

A $38 fee is required when registering here or here. The race benefits the East End Hospice, Timothy Hill's Children's Ranch, and the Shelter Island Run Community Fund.
